Hi Emma,

Kris asked me to check with you on the title of our editorial accompanying the phthalate special issue. Paul Whaley, the editor, has suggested titles that include mention of the IRIS program. Do you have any concerns about that? I've attached the editorial in case it's helpful.

Thanks,
Beth

Can you check with Emma to see if she has concerns?

ok? Would one of the below work?

. Is that

My only suggestion would be to amend the title so the SRs are more specifically identified - maybe something like...
